

CVC'S PREVENTION RESOURCE ROUNDUP

RESOURCES FOR THE COMMUNITY

NOVEMBER 2020 BY GRACE HARVEY

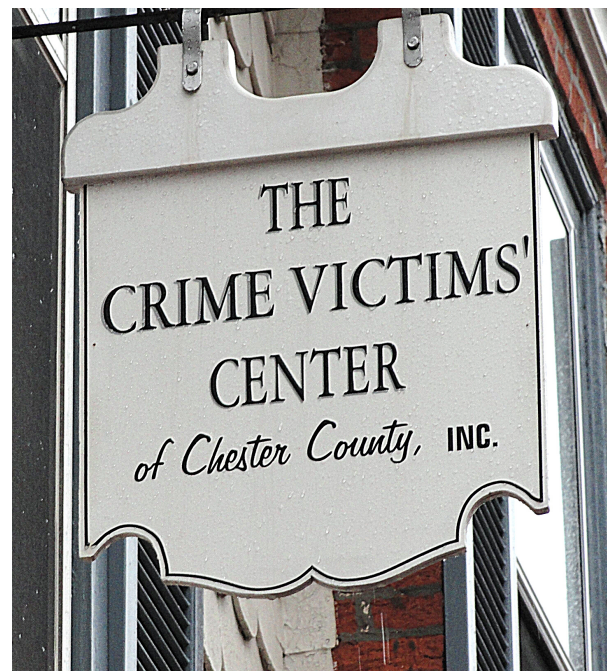

TRANS VISIBILITY MONTH

As November is Trans Visibility Month it is important to reflect on ways to support and value transgender lives all year long. One way to do that is by highlighting the stories of trans folk, and learning how to be better allies. Join us in our efforts to prevent crime against trans folk and offer a safe and inclusive community

WHAT'S INSIDE

This newsletter includes a variety of resources for educators, parents, and community members on how to best support trans folk. These resources are meant to help educate and make trans lives more visible.

CONTACT US

WWW.CVCOFCC.ORG

JOE MYERS: JOEM@CVCOFCC.ORG

RESOURCE ROUNDUP

HONORING TRANS VISIBILITY MONTH
NOVEMBER 2020

A Beginners Guide to Being an Ally to Trans People

GLAAD

A starting point for how to better support trans people and advocate for them.

Pronoun Guide

GLSEN

As we work to build safer communities, we want to make sure that we are being the best allies for those who are the most vulnerable. This is a guide to help navigate pronouns, what they are, why they're important, and how to use them.

A Guide to Being an Ally to Trans and Nonbinary Youth

The Trevor Project

This guide educates on the basics of gender and expression the covers a wide range of topics to help readers become allies to trans and nonbinary youth.

Gender Spectrum

Genderspectrum.com

This website offers a vast array of resources for parents, youth, educators, professionals, and more on a wide range of topics involving gender,